

Please do not weaken New Jerseys' do not call program for one thing the telemarketers are based overseas somewhere and there is a definite language barrier, that I just can't tolerate when it comes to someone trying to get me to signup to purchase their service or product I won't really know what I'm getting. Thank You